MSMEs need low cost innovative solutions and product ideas.

University graduates lack industry exposure and relevant design skills.

In collaboration with Manav Rachna International University (MRIU); Tod-Phod-Jod centre established on-campus.

Students are given real-world problems as projects with industry acting as mentor.

MSMEs and Entrepreneurs lack awareness of support programs and schemes—both government and non-government.

Need advise, hand holding and mentoring to grow to the next level.

EFC acts as information hub.

Acts as facilitator connecting MSME/Entrepreneur to relevant expert or institution.

Collaboration with Central Mechanical Engineering Research Institute (CMERI) for developing low-cost automation solutions.

Partnership with other national and international institutions being explored.